

This is ridiculous! Satellite radio has proven to be superior to what is traditionally available. The local broadcasters need to figure out how to enhance their services to better compete with satellite. Please do not stifle this technology!